LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM RULES AND ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, or Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relates to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act,—shall require a Notice, clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application and, where the application refers to any proposed work, indicating generally the location of the work, and signed by or on behalf of the applicant; such notice to be published as follows:—

In the BRITISH COLUMBIA GAZETTE, and in one newspaper published in each Electoral District affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper in the next nearest Electoral Districts in which a newspaper is published.

Such notice shall be continued in each case for a period of at least six weeks, during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the Petition, and copies of such notice shall be sent by the parties inserting such notice to the Clerk of the House, to be filed amongst the records of the Committee on Standing Orders.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before and Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated February 25th, 1921.

JOHN KEEN,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(f.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, hold, exercise, and use any Acts of Parliament, grants, licences, privileges, concessions, patents, secret or other information, leases, or similar rights or powers relating to or connected with any of the objects of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(g.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(h.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(i.) To erect, construct, maintain, improve, and work any buildings, plant, engines, machinery, fixtures, or other works which may be necessary or advisable for the purposes of the Company, or to subscribe towards the construction, improvement, or maintenance thereof:

(j.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for any of the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(k.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to give any guarantee or indemnity as may seem expedient:

(l.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money for any purpose, and to secure the same, together with interest, or for any purpose, to mortgage or charge all or any part of the undertaking, property, and rights of the Company, both present or future, including its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, or other obligations, bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments:

(m.) To sell, let, improve, exchange, enfranchise, develop, dispose of, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, including the granting of powers to work the Company's patents upon any terms, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stock, or obligations of any other company:

(n.) To promote any company or companies, either in the United Kingdom or elsewhere, for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or obligations in any such or any other company, and upon a distribution of assets or division of profits to distribute such shares, stock, or obligations amongst the members of the Company in specie:

(o.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) Generally to distribute among the members any property of the Company in specie:

(q.) To establish and provide sinking and reserve funds for redemption or payment of obligations and liabilities and shares of the Company:

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of or raising money for the Company, and the issue or placing of any of the shares in its capital, or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for or placing shares or debentures:

(s.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(t.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or owners, or by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(v.) To procure the registration or other legal recognition of the Company in any British colony or dependency or in any foreign country:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, either incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the first three paragraphs of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh3

H. G. GARRETT.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and licensed under the above Act are:

(a.) To provide vessels to be impelled by steam or any other power, together with all engines, machinery, articles, matters, and things necessary for the same, and of employing the same upon such stations as may from time to time be contracted for by the proper authorities in that behalf for the transmission of the mails to and from Great Britain, the West Indies, North and South America, and such other foreign parts as the public service may require:

(b.) To build, purchase, or contract for such vessels, steam engines, apparatus, articles, and materials as may appear to them necessary for the purposes of the said Corporation, and may contract for, hire, and provide such sailing-vessels as may be necessary for carrying on the business of the said Corporation:

(c.) To purchase, take, hold, and enjoy to them and their successors such wharves, docks, houses, offices, buildings, lands, and other hereditaments and also such ships and vessels as shall from time to time be actually and bona fide necessary and proper for the purpose of managing, conducting, and carrying on the affairs, concerns, and business of the said Corporation, but not for any other purposes nor so as to be in any manner made instrumental for the purposes of speculation, and to sell, convey, and dispose of the same respectively when not wanted for the purpose of their said business:

(d.) To establish any and all such other lines of communication by steam or otherwise with all or any ports or places in the West Indies and in North and South America and such other foreign parts as to the said Company shall seem desirable, so as such lines of communication shall be connected with and be in the nature of auxiliary branches to the several lines of communication which the said Company have established as aforesaid or are authorized to establish:

(e.) To employ their ships and vessels for any lawful purposes, both within and without the limits prescribed by or referred to in the said charters:

(f.) To let their said ships and vessels and property to others upon charter-party contracts or otherwise:

(g.) To hire ships and vessels and other property under charter-party contracts or otherwise:

(h.) To contract for, undertake, and carry on any land, transport, or transit business or operations in connection with and as subsidiary to the business of the Company as carriers by sea:

(i.) From time to time to raise money for the purposes of the Company, either by way of loan to the Company upon its bonds or debentures or upon mortgages or other charges to be made of its property, or by the creation and issue of debenture stock:

(j.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in and debentures or debenture stock or other securities of any other corporation or company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company, but so that the amount at any time invested in the shares or stock or debentures or debenture stock or other securities of a company or companies not incorporated in the United Kingdom or Great Britain and Ireland or in any British colony or possession shall not exceed one equal twentieth part of the capital of the Company:

(k.) To purchase or otherwise acquire the whole or any part of the business undertaking and property of any company or person or persons carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(l.) To purchase, build, charter, hire, take in exchange, or otherwise acquire, load on commission, repair, let out to hire, and trade with steam and other ships or vessels, with all equipments, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, and merchandise of all kinds between such ports in any part of the world as may seem expedient, and to carry on the business of ship-owners and carriers by sea and land in all their respective branches:

(m.) To carry on (but only so far as the same can in the opinion of the Company be conveniently carried on in connection with its shipping business and as subsidiary and ancillary thereto) the businesses of proprietors of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehousemen, lightermen, refrigerating store-keepers, ice merchants, colliery proprietors, owners of oil properties, mechanical engineers, hotel and restaurant keepers, underwriters, and insurers of ships' goods and other property, general merchants and traders, and any business which may seem likely, directly or indirectly, to promote the shipping business of the Company or calculated directly, or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(n.) To purchase, take on lease or hire, or otherwise acquire, construct, alter, hold, work, and maintain any wharves, piers, floating or other docks, tramways, warehouses, refrigerating stores and works, hotels, restaurants, ice-factories, coal-mines, oil-wells, oil properties, coaling-stations, engineers' and repairing workshops and factories, and any other works or property which it may appear desirable to acquire and hold in connection with the shipping business of the Company in any part of the world, or any interest in any such works or property, and to turn the same to account in such manner as may be thought fit:

(o.) To purchase merchandise or produce for the purpose of freighting any vessels belonging to or in which the Company is interested:

(p.) To purchase or otherwise acquire any land, easements, or hereditaments of any tenure in any part of the world or any other real or immovable property or any personal or movable property or rights as may be deemed expedient:

(q.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents or concessions or like grants conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(r.) To pay for any property which the Company is authorized to acquire either in cash or in shares or stock (either wholly or partly paid up) or in debentures or debenture stock of the Company:

(s.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(t.) To promote and establish or assist in promoting and establishing any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property, rights, or liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and to pay all the expenses of or incidental thereto:

(u.) To effect all such insurances in relation to the carrying-on of the Company's business and any risks incidental thereto as may seem expedient, and, if thought fit, to join or become a member of any mutual insurance company or association:

(v.) To provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of any company controlled by or in which the Company is interested, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent upon them, by granting money allowances or pensions, subscribing to superannuation funds, sick or benefit clubs or societies, and making payments towards insurance, or establishing and supporting or aiding in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(w.) To institute and carry into effect any scheme of profit-sharing with persons in the employ of the Company:

(x.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to subsidiary or other companies in which the Company may for the time being hold shares or be otherwise interested, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons, customers, or companies:

(y.) Upon a distribution of assets or dividend of profits, to distribute in specie or kind among the members any shares, stock, or obligations of any other company or property of any description held by the Company:

(z.) To sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all or any part of the property and assets of the Company for any consideration, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company:

(aa.) To do all or any of the above things and all such other things as may be incidental thereto or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents, and either directly or by or through trustees or agents or by means of any subsidiary or auxiliary company, and either alone or in partnership or conjunction with any other person, firm, association, or company. mh17

LAND REGISTRY ACT.

APPLICATION No. 60042 I.

In the Matter of an Application to register Alexander Stewart as owner in Indefeasible Fee of Lots 38, 39, and 40, Blocks 6 and 7, District Lot 37, Map No. 2376, Municipality of South Vancouver.

WHEREAS application has been made for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the above-mentioned lands in the name of Alexander Stewart;

And whereas on investigating the title it appears that you were the holder of a right to purchase the said lands under an unregistered Agreement for Sale dated July 15th, 1909.

Now, therefore, I hereby give you notice that it is my intention, at the expiration of fourteen days from the service on you of this notice which may be effected by advertisement in five consecutive issues of the "Weekly Gazette," to effect registration in pursuance of the said application free from the above-mentioned right to purchase, unless in the meantime you take and prosecute the proper proceedings to establish your claim, if any, to the said lands, or to prevent such proposed action on my part.

Dated at the Land Registry Office, Vancouver, B.C., this 17th day of February, 1921.

Vancouver, B.C., February 19th, 1921.

CLARENCE L. MURDOFF,

mh3 Solicitor for Little Brothers, Limited.

IN THE SUPREME COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

IN PROBATE.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ESTATE OF WALTER BALLS HEADLEY, DECEASED.

Between Mary Dow Boyd Murdoch and the Royal Trust Company, Plaintiffs, and Charles Bidwell, Fanny Evans, Anne Esther Tress, Rebecca Harriet Robins, Caroline Grain, Constance Field, Annie Grain, and Edward Herbert Grain, who are sued herein on behalf of themselves and all other the heirs-at-law and next of kin of the above-named Walter Balls Headley, Deceased, Defendants.

NOTICE is hereby given that the above-named Walter Balls Headley, retired physician and surgeon, died at Procter, British Columbia, on or about the 7th day of March, 1918, having made and executed a paper writing purporting to be his last will, bearing date the 17th day of December, 1917, and thereby appointed the Equity Trustees Company, Limited, of Melbourne, Australia, to be the sole executor with respect to his Australian assets and the plaintiffs to be co-executors of all his assets, except those situated in Australia, and having also signed a paper writing bearing date the 25th day of February, 1918, whereby he purported to revoke all former wills and appointed the Equity Trustees Company, Limited, sole executor with respect to his Australian assets but did not refer to his other assets.

And further take notice that this action coming on for trial on the 13th day of September, 1920, the Court ordered adjudged and declared that the above-named deceased did not intend by the said paper writing on the 25th day of February, 1918, to change or in any way affect his said will of the 17th day of December, 1917, and pronounced against the force and validity of the said paper writing of the 25th day of February, 1918, and adjudged and declared that the said paper writing of the 17th day of December, 1917, contains the true and original last will and testament of the said deceased, and is entitled to be admitted to probate as such in solemn form of law.

And notice is hereby given that the said will has been duly proved in the said Court (Victoria Registry) by the Royal Trust Company, the said Mary Dow Boyd Murdoch having renounced probate.

And notice is also hereby given, pursuant to the "Trustee Act" of British Columbia, that all creditors and other persons having claims against the said estate are required to send full particulars of their claims, duly verified by statutory declaration, to the undersigned, on or before the 30th day of May, 1921, after which date the assets of the estate of the said deceased will be distributed among the parties entitled thereto, and the residue applied pursuant to the provisions of the said will of the 17th day of December, 1917, having regard only to those claims of which the undersigned has then had notice, and that the undersigned will not be liable for the assets or any part thereof so distributed, to any person of whose claim the undersigned has not had notice at the time of distribution.

And notice is also given that all persons indebted to the said estate are required to pay such indebtedness to the undersigned forthwith.

MUNICIPAL BY-LAWS.

CORPORATION OF THE TOWNSHIP OF RICHMOND.

BY-LAW No. 272.

A By-law for draining Land on Number 8 Road, Lulu Island, to be designated as the "Number 8 Road Drainage District," in the Municipality of Richmond, and for borrowing on the Credit of the Municipality the Sum of Seven thousand Five hundred Dollars ($7,500) for completing the same.

Provisionally adopted the 7th day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

Whereas a majority in number and value of the owners, as shown by the last revised assessment roll, of the property hereinafter set forth to be benefited by the drainage thereof have petitioned the Council of the said municipality, praying that the drainage of lands on each side of Number 8 Road between the North and South Arms of the Fraser River on Lulu Island, British Columbia, may be so improved and kept in order that the land may be satisfactorily drained:

And whereas thereupon the said Council procured an examination to be made by Thomas H. Tracy, being a person competent for such purpose, of the said locality proposed to be drained, and has also procured plans and estimates of the work to be made by the said Thomas H. Tracy, and an assessment to be made by him of the land and roads to be benefited by such drainage, stating as nearly as he can the proportion of benefit which, in his opinion, will be derived in consequence of such drainage, the said assessment so made being the assessment hereinafter by this by-law enacted to be assessed and levied upon the lots and parts of lots hereinafter in that behalf specially set forth and described, and the report of said Thomas H. Tracy in respect thereof and of the said drainage being as follows:—

February 18th, 1921.

To the Reeve and Council,
Municipality of Richmond:

GENTLEMEN:

Re No. 8 Road Drainage.

I have examined the land on both side of No. 8 Road requiring to be drained, and recommend a dredged ditch from the present canal at the North Arm of the Fraser to the canal on the north shore of the main river.

I enclose estimate of cost and statement of rates to be charged, also assessment roll of the properties to be benefited, also plans (3) of the district included, being one-half mile each side of the road.

I have the honour to be,

Your obedient servant,

And whereas the said Council is of opinion that the drainage of the locality described is desirable:

Be it therefore enacted by the said Municipal Council of the said Township Municipality of Richmond, pursuant to the provisions of the "Municipal Act":—

1st. That the said report, plans, and estimates be adopted, and the said drain and the works connected therewith be made and constructed in accordance therewith.

2nd. That the Reeve of the said Township Municipality may borrow on the credit of the Corporation of the said Township Municipality the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars ($7,500), being the funds necessary for the work, and may issue debentures of the Corporation to that amount in sums of not less than one hundred dollars each and payable within twenty years from the date thereof, with interest at the rate of six per centum per annum; that is to say, in semi-annual payments; such debentures to be payable at Royal Bank of Canada, Vancouver, B.C., and to have attached to them coupons for the payment of interest.

3rd. That for the purpose of paying the sum of $7,500, being the amount charged against the said lands so to be benefited as aforesaid, other than lands belonging to the municipality, and to cover interest for twenty years at the rate of six per centum per annum, the before-mentioned special rates, over and above all other rates, shall be assessed and levied upon the above lots and parts of lots; and the amount of the said special rates and interest assessed as aforesaid against each lot or part of lot respectively shall be divided into twenty equal parts, and one such part shall be assessed and levied as aforesaid in each year for twenty years after the final passing of this by-law during which the said debentures have to run.

Notice is hereby given that the Court of Revision of the assessment roll in respect of the taxes to be levied and collected upon the lands to be benefited by the works referred to in the above-mentioned by-law will be held in the Town Hall, Brighthouse, Lulu Island, on the 3rd day of May, 1921, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and any person complaining in regard to himself as having been wrongfully inserted or omitted from the said assessment, or as having been undercharged or overcharged in any such assessment or having been illegally assessed in respect thereof, may personally or by means of a complaint in writing, signed by himself or a solicitor or by any other person authorized by him in writing to appear on his behalf, bring his complaint and the evidence in support thereof before the said Court of Revision at the time and place aforesaid.

Notice of complaint in writing must be in the hands of the Clerk of the Municipality at least eight days before the sitting of the said Court of Revision.

Dated this day of , 1921.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-third day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses following, namely: Importers and exporters, manufacturers, and wholesale and retail dealers in manufactured articles, raw materials, goods, wares, and merchandise of every description and kind, the business of general wholesale and retail merchants, manufacturers' agents, owners, lessees, and operators of factories, buildings and warehouses, and generally to engage in any business or transaction permitted by the "Companies Act" which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, conducive to the interests or convenience of the Company's members:

(b.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter and exchange, let on hire, export, and deal in all kinds of articles and things which may be required for the purposes of any of the said businesses, or commonly supplied or dealt in by persons engaged in any such businesses, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with any of the said businesses:

(c.) To grant to ticket-holders and others any special privileges and advantages, and to make arrangements with persons engaged in any trade, business, or profession for the concession to the Company's members, ticket-holders, and their friends, of any special privileges or advantages:

(d.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(e.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, to sell, lease, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, and otherwise deal in, any real and personal property or any interest therein, including stocks, bonds, debentures, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(f.) To purchase, acquire, and take over the business and (or) undertaking, goodwill, property, and (or) liabilities of any person or company, whether incorporated or not, carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and to pay for the same either in cash or with fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of this Company, or part in cash and part in fully paid-up shares as aforesaid; to enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any other company, person, or persons carrying on or to carry on any business or works or undertaking which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold debentures, bonds, shares, or stock or securities of any such company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in all such shares and securities; to lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(g.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities; to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(h.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) permitted by the "Companies Act" which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company; to sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company; to distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members; to amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To do all such other things as may seem to this Company to be incidental or, directly or indirectly, conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(k.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) in any part of the world and with any corporation, company, or person that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such authority or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out and deal with, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, and otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(m.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in the placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or in the conduct of its business:

(n.) To establish or support or aid in the establishment, and support of associations, institutions, funds, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or exemployees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance for the benefit of such persons:

(o.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph: Provided, however, that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

(7.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(8.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(9.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(10.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue the same, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(11.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(12.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(13.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or to charge the undertaking or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock:

(14.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or premises of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(15.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(16.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, cheques, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(17.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(18.) To procure this Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or Territory of the Dominion of Canada or in any Province, country, or place:

(19.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(20.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any real or personal property, or any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(21.) To do all or any part of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(22.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first four subclauses of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first four subclauses of this clause.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 5482 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "B. Holt & Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred thousand dollars, divided into one hundred thousand shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this third day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, by Bernard Holt and Frank Vodicka, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of that business, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To carry on the business of importers and exporters of and dealers, both wholesale and retail, in furs and skins:

(c.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of furriers, drapers, silk merchants, haberdashers, hosiers, milliners, dressmakers, tailors, clothiers, hatters, gloves, outfitters, manufacturers of and wholesale and retail dealers in textile fabrics of all kinds, household furniture, furnishings and fittings, jewellery, fancy goods, and ornaments:

(d.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(e.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purpose of its business, and in particular any lands, timber, mines, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(f.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(g.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(h.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or future, including its uncalled capital, and to grant, execute, sell, and deliver mortgages, bonds, and bills of sale, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual and redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(k.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, or stocks or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(l.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(m.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(n.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing and promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(o.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, securities, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, to dispose of any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(s.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of, or to facilitate the realization of, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere; and that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(h.) To purchase, operate, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire steam and other ships or vessels, tugs, barges, and scows, with all equipments and furniture, and to employ the same for all or any purpose in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or in the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and to carry on the business of carriers by land and water, ship-owners, warehousemen, wharfingers, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents:

(i.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records:

(j.) To use water or water-power for general irrigation purposes within the Province of British Columbia for domestic, milling, manufacturing, industrial, and mechanical purposes, and to adopt such unit of measurement of water and to provide such means for measuring water for sale and use as may be most convenient:

(k.) To have all the powers of a power company under the "Water Act," and to acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying-out and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings, or improvements whatsoever, and to operate and carry on the business of a light and power company and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power, and for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and to sell and supply electric light, compressed air, electricity, electric power, and any other form of developed power to consumers, public or private, for any purposes:

(l.) To construct, operate, and maintain electric works, power-houses, generating plant, accumulators, cables, wires, lamps, and such other appliances and conveniences as are necessary and proper for the generating of electricity, electric light, and electric power, and for transmitting the same to be used by the Company or by persons, corporations, or companies contracting with the Company:

(m.) To purchase, take on lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire any improved or unimproved lands in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over and in connection with land, and to lease, sell, exchange, mortgage, or otherwise deal with or encumber any such lands or any interest therein, and to build, contract for, or construct any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company, and to use, manage, lease, sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(n.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise any personal property, chattels, chattels real, fixtures, or other effects required in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or otherwise, and to sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(o.) To invest or deal with the moneys of the Company immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(q.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, and chattel mortgages, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, obligations:

(r.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets to any person, firm, or company, and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company:

(s.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (Provincial, local, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(t.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, stock, or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(u.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(v.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(w.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(x.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, goods, or chattels, purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(z.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(aa.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(bb.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company or the conduct of its business, or in the payment of commissions in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(cc.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(dd.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(ee.) To establish depots in any part of Canada or in any other country for the carrying-on of the said business:

(ff.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in conjunction with any of the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(gg.) To aid in the establishment and support of associations or institutions calculated to benefit persons employed by the Company or having dealings with the Company; to provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly in the employment of the Company, and the widows and children of such persons and others dependent on them, by granting moneys or pensions, providing schools, reading-rooms, places of recreation, or subscribing to sick or benefit clubs or societies; to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, and generally for any purpose which may seem likely, whether directly or indirectly, to promote the development of the business of the Company or to prevent its contraction, or for any public general or useful object:

(hh.) To do all such other things as are or the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or which may be calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value, or to facilitate the realization, or to render profitable any of the Company's property or rights.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fourteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

-H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia and in the waters contiguous thereto, or in any part of the world, the business of fishermen, cannery, packers, salters, curers, cold-storage operators, and preservers of all kinds of fish, shell-fish, and other products of the sea, rivers, or inland waters, or products of the land, such as meats, fruits, and vegetables, and to purchase, lease, construct, erect, alter, locate, or otherwise acquire, operate, and work canneries, salteries, smoke-houses, factories, oileries, fertilizer-works, cannery-sites, cannery licences, fishing-sites, fishing licences, fish-traps, hatcheries, and lands suitable for the propagation and cultivation of oysters, lobsters, crabs, and other sea products, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(b.) To carry on the business of buying, catching, propagating, breeding, storing, freezing, packing, canning, salting, smoking, curing, preserving, and dealing in and selling, or consigning to agents for sale, fish of every kind and description, including oysters, clams, lobsters, and all other forms and varieties of shell-fish, and of game and poultry:

(c.) To make, buy, manufacture, refine, acquire, sell, and deal in all kinds of fish-oils, fish-guano, fish-glue, gelatine, fertilizers, and all products and by-products which may be made out of fish, fish offal and refuse, and other sea products, and otherwise dispose of the same:

(d.) To manufacture, erect, construct, operate, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, and deal in or deal with nets, lines, seines, fish-traps, and other implements, appliances, and instruments for catching, taking, and preserving fish, cans, barrels, and boxes, and all articles, apparatus, appurtenances, and appliances which may be useful, convenient, or profitable to manufacture, erect, construct, operate, produce, buy, acquire, maintain, sell, or deal in or with, or in furtherance of, or in connection with the business or any of the businesses hereinbefore specified:

(e.) To build, construct, purchase, charter, or otherwise acquire and operate vessels, steamboats, trawlers, drifters, fishing-boats, tugs, tenders, scows, barges, crafts, and boats of every description or any interest therein, and to let out, lease, hire, mortgage, charter, sell, or otherwise dispose of the same or any interest therein, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mail, merchandise, products, and other chattels of all kinds, and to carry on the business of ship-owners, barge-owners, and lightermen in all its branches:

(f.) To erect, construct, maintain, operate, alter, buy, acquire, mortgage, and dispose of buildings, piers, wharves, plant, and machinery of every description in pursuance or furtherance of or in connection with the business or any of the businesses hereinbefore specified:

(g.) To carry on business as ice, salt, stone, sand, lime, timber, lumber, dry-goods, grocers, store-keepers, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission; to equip and operate cold-storage plants; to erect, furnish, and maintain hotels, lodging-houses, boarding-houses, and to carry on the business of hotelkeepers, lodging-house keepers, and restaurateurs; to purchase, lease, and otherwise acquire real estate, foreshore with territorial water rights for fishing, foreshore rights, trawling rights and fishing rights and privileges, warehouses, wharves, fish-traps, canneries, fishing-stations, and other buildings, easements, and real or personal property as may be deemed suitable for any of the purposes of the Company, and to construct, improve, maintain buildings, piers, wharves, plant, machinery, and any other thing thereon which may be deemed necessary or useful in connection with any business which the Company is authorized to carry on; to acquire water and water-power by records or by the purchase of water privileges, and to utilize the same for the purpose of the Company under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereto:

(h.) To apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose to which electricity may be applied:

(i.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereof, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof, and to carry on the business of sawmill owners and proprietors and loggers, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in timber, lumber, and wood products of all kinds:

(j.) To sell, manage, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertakings or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(k.) To pay for any assets or property, real or personal, or rights, privileges, permits, or licences acquired by the Company, either wholly or partly in shares or stock of the Company, either partly or fully paid up, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(l.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(m.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, and to form any subsidiary company in British Columbia or elsewhere necessary or convenient for carrying out any objects of the Company, or which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(n.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to secure the repayment of the same in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's undertaking and property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay off all such securities:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To enter into any agreement with the Government (Dominion or Provincial) or any authority (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions, and to acquire from any concessionaire any subsidies, charters, rights, privileges, or concessions, which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, or comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(q.) To apply for any Act of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(r.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(s.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(t.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(u.) To enter into partnership or into any amalgamation or arrangement for sharing the profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise acquire shares and securities in any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same;

(v.) To do all or any of the things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To do all such other things as the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects. mh24

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase, acquire, and take over from one Ritchie S. Gallop, of the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, a certain patent granted by His Majesty the King in the right of the Dominion of Canada unto the said Ritchie S. Gallop, bearing Number 205209, including all rights to the ignition invention for internal-combustion engines therein granted, for a consideration of the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000) in the share capital of this Company fully paid up, and to manufacture, sell, and deal in the invention therein mentioned, or to lease or sell the same upon royalty for cash or upon terms as the Company may deem advisable:

(b.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and otherwise deal in all kinds of inventions, also all kinds of machinery, accessories, tools, and all other merchandise of every kind and description whatsoever.

(c.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to import, export, and deal in all kinds and descriptions of raw materials necessary or incidental to the manufacture, improving, and making saleable any goods and merchandise which the Company may deal in:

(d.) To purchase, construct, manufacture, lease, charter, hire, and otherwise acquire, and to hold, use, maintain, improve, develop, work, and operate, and to hold idle, and to sell, let, lease, hire, let out on contract, or otherwise howsoever turn to account any real estate or personal estate, leases, easements, rights-of-way, warehouses, factories, machinery, works, trucks, motors, cars, and any and all other plant and equipment, or any rights, shares, privileges, easements, or interests therein, which the Company may think may be in any way useful, convenient, or necessary for the purposes of its business:

(e.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire and to hold any lands in fee-simple, or otherwise own any real estate or any leasehold or any other right and interest therein, and to utilize same for the purposes of the Company, or to lease, sell, or otherwise dispose of or turn to account the same:

(f.) To acquire and hold and to utilize, sell, grant licences or permissions to use, or otherwise turn to account patent rights, including trade-marks, concessions from Governments or authorities, easements, and generally all such concessions, rights, and privileges as may be necessary to enable the Company to carry on its businesses or any of them:

(g.) To borrow or raise and secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(h.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(i.) To acquire by purchase any business, assets, stock-in-trade, chattels, goods, wares, and merchandise or any of them or any interests therein, and any properties, rights, contracts, or other things useful for the Company, either clear of encumbrances or subject to the payment of any liabilities of any nature belonging or appertaining thereto, and to pay for the same either in cash or by the allotment and issuance to the vendor thereof of fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of the capital stock of this Company, or partly in one way and partly in the other, and to settle by compromise or otherwise and to pay any debts or liabilities assumed by this Company or owing by this Company in the same manner:

(j.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(k.) The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on all or any of the businesses of clothiers, outfitters, jobbers, storekeepers, both wholesale and retail, tailors, shippers, general agents, and warehousemen, and to buy, sell, make, manufacture, import, export, warehouse, store, and deal in every description of merchandise and goods, and particularly the retailing of men's and boys' clothing and gent's furnishings:

(b.) To carry on any business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, that may seem to the Company capable of being carried on in connection with any of the business of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the business, property, or rights of the Company:

(c.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, erect, maintain, reconstruct, lease, and adapt any buildings, offices, workshops, mills, plant, machinery, and other things found necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company:

(d.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, or goodwill and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits under any interest or amalgamation or reciprocal concession or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(e.) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property and assets of any firm, person, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively or otherwise, as may be agreed:

(f.) To do all kinds of commercial business permitted by the "Companies Act," and to conduct the business of general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in buying and selling of commodities, and generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently or advantageously carried on in connection with the business of the Company; to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale of any articles dealt in by the Company in Canada and in any part of the British Empire and elsewhere, and to regulate or discontinue same:

(g.) To dispose of by sale, lease, under-lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise, absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interests of or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, company, society, or association or to any person or persons for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any stock, shares, debentures, securities, or property of any other company:

(h.) To lend and invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required and to make advances for the purpose of this Company upon stock, shares, and other securities, and on property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for the purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of same in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's undertakings and property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem and pay for all such securities:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To enter into any agreement with any Government or authority (supreme, foreign, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions, and to acquire from any concessionaire any subsidies, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions, which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with or, if deemed advisable, dispose of any arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(l.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(m.) To increase the capital of the Company by the issue of new shares, or to amalgamate with any other company now or hereinafter incorporated having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(o.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, or for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(p.) To sell, manage, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertakings or all or any part of the property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(q.) To acquire, register, and use any brands, patent rights, licences, and trade-marks, or the privileges of a like nature, and to grant licences thereunder, and to dispose of the same in whole or in any part at any time or times:

(r.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any place or country:

(s.) Generally to do all such other things as the Company may think are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company. mh10

the purpose of acquiring and undertaking any property or liabilities of the Company, or advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, and for any other purpose which this Company may think expedient:

(d.) To carry on the business of real-estate agents and agents for the investment, loan, payment, transmission, and collection of rents, debts, and money, and for the purchase, sale, development, improvement, and management of property, both real and personal, including business concerns and undertakings, and to negotiate loans, find investments, and to issue and take shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, and securities, and generally to transact and undertake all kinds of agency business, whether in respect of agricultural, commercial, or financial matters:

(e.) To carry on and undertake any business transaction or operating commonly carried on or undertaken by promoters of companies, financiers, concessionaires, contractors for public and other works, capitalists, merchants, or traders, and generally to undertake and carry on all such transactions and operations as any individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry on:

(f.) To carry on the business of hotel, restaurant, café, tavern, beer-house, refreshment-room, and lodging-house keepers, licensed victuallers, wine, beer, and spirit merchants, brewers, maltsters, distillers, importers and manufacturers of aerated, mineral, and artificial waters and other drinks, purveyors, caterers for public amusements generally, automobile proprietors, livery-stable keepers, garage-keepers, jobmasters, automobile-hirers, automobile-dealers, contractors, storekeepers, farmers, dairymen, ice merchants, importers and brokers of food, live and dead stock, and colonial and foreign produce of all descriptions, insurance agents, agents for railway and shipping companies and carriers, theatrical proprietors, entrepreneurs and general agents, dealers in timber, stone, and building materials, and any other business which can conveniently be carried on in connection therewith:

(g.) To carry on any other business permitted by the "Companies Act" which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the objects of the Company, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and generally to undertake and carry on all such transactions and operations as any individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry on:

(h.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore, and test, and to dispatch and employ expeditions, commissioners, experts, and other agents:

(i.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, deal and traffic in real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular lands, buildings, hereditaments, water rights, water privileges, water licences, timber and timber licences, timber rights, business concerns and undertakings, mortgages, charges, annuities, contracts, mortgages of real and personal estate, agreements for sale of land, patents, licences, shares, stocks, bonds, debentures, debenture stock, securities, concessions, options, produce, policies, book debts and claims, privileges, choses in action, and any interest in real or personal property, and any claims against such property or against any persons or company, and generally to acquire, sell, and deal in personal property of every description, and to carry on any business concern or undertaking so acquired as aforesaid:

(j.) To enter into any arrangements with any imperial, foreign, Dominion, or Provincial Government or any public authority that may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any concessions, grants, rights, powers, and privileges whatsoever which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, exercise, and to turn to account the same:

(k.) To manage, develop, and turn to account any land acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and constructing and maintaining roads, ways, drains, sewers, and all other necessary works, and by letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(l.) To farm, cultivate, and plant any land, and to carry on the business of farmers, stock-raisers, and agriculturists, and to acquire and deal in timber and all products of the earth, and to erect, carry on, and manage sawmills, pulp-mills, and other mills, plant and machinery:

(m.) To establish and carry on and promote the establishment and carrying-on of any business which may conveniently be carried on upon or in connection with any land in which the Company is interested as aforesaid, the establishment or carrying-on of which is calculated to enhance the value of the Company's interest in such land or facilitate the disposal thereof:

(n.) To lend money to builders, tenants, and others who may be willing to build on or improve any land in which the Company is interested, and generally to advance money to such persons and on such terms as may be arranged:

(o.) To explore, work, exercise, and develop any minerals in or upon the Company's land, and purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights, and metalliferous land, and work, exercise, and develop the same, and construct all works and carry on all metalliferous operations necessary or usual in the winning and getting of minerals:

(p.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money by mortgage or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, or in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and for the purposes aforesaid to charge all or any of the Company's property or assets, present and future, including its uncalled capital, and collaterally or further to secure any securities of the Company by a trust deed or other assurance:

(r.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To lend money either with or without security and generally to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit:

(t.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(u.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(v.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(w.) To distribute any of the profits of the Company among the members in specie:

(x.) To make, enter into, seal and deliver, accept and receive all deeds, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the Company and to promote its objects and business:

(y.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(z.) It is hereby declared and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, or any other manner, lands and premises, and to erect thereon cold-storage plants, warehouses, or other buildings which the Company may require for its business, and to sell, lease, or otherwise dispose of such lands or buildings when the Company deems it expedient to do so:

(b.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, pulling down, altering, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(c.) To carry on a general warehouse business, and in connection therewith to store goods, wares, and merchandise of every kind and description; to issue storage and warehouse receipts, and to collect storage and other dues:

(d.) To enter into agreements or other reciprocal arrangements with all persons, associations, or corporations growing, producing, or concerned in the growing or producing of agricultural and horticultural products for the purpose of disposing of same to all wholesalers, retailers, and consumers thereof, to the end and purport that the farmers and fruit-growers may obtain ready markets with maximum of prices:

(e.) To conduct and carry on the business of fruit, vegetable, grain, hay, and general merchants, both wholesale and retail and on commission, and to act as brokers in the buying and selling of the same, and to carry on the business of importers, buyers, sellers, handlers, traders of and dealers in fruit, fruit-trees, nursery stock of all kinds, and of all farm, garden, orchard, and dairy produce, and all other agricultural products, and in connection with the business of the Company to establish branch factories, stores, agencies, depots, and other markets for the purchase and sale thereof:

(f.) To make advances in goods or other supplies to persons or corporations having dealings with the Company for such purposes and upon such terms as the Company shall deem meet:

(g.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(h.) To take and otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on business capable of being conducted so as to be, directly or indirectly, beneficial to this Company:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal or otherwise, with any person or company carrying on business, engaging in, or about to carry on and engage in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(j.) To sell by public auction the fruit or other farm produce owned or held for sale by the Company, and for such purposes to carry on the business of auctioneers, and to acquire or hold an interest in any firm or company whose business consists wholly or in part of selling fruit or other farm produce by public auction:

(k.) To effect insurance in any insurance company authorized to transact business in Canada against loss by any means whatever of any fruit or other farm produce held or owned by or consigned to the Company while in transit or in storage, and to pay necessary premium or premiums therefor in cash or by means of a definite fund or percentage on such fruit or farm produce to be formed and set aside for that purpose:

(l.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in boxes, cases, barrels, crates, baskets, cans, tins, bottles, and all manner of packages and receptacles of every description and kind, and to erect and operate mills and factories for the manufacture thereof, and to purchase logs and timber:

(m.) To harvest, take, store, manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in ice:

(n.) To own and operate cooling and cold-storage plants for the use of the Company or of any person, firm, or corporation:

(o.) To subscribe for, conditionally or unconditionally, to undertake, issue on commission or otherwise, take, hold, deal in, and convert stocks, shares, and securities of all kinds, and enter into partnership or enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession, or any operation with any person, partnership or company, and to promote and aid in promoting, constitute, form, or organize companies, syndicates, or partnerships of all kinds for the purpose of acquiring and undertaking any property and liabilities of this Company, or of advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, and for any other purpose which this Company may think expedient; and to lend money to, guarantee contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company; to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company, or carrying on any business which can be conveniently carried on which this Company is authorized to carry on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(q.) To enter into any agreement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(r.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(s.) To borrow money on the security of the whole or any part of the property belonging to the Company to such an amount as may be necessary for the purposes of the Company, and to grant mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(t.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such a manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off such securities:

(u.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst the members in specie:

(v.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(w.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the properties and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(x.) To purchase or otherwise acquire shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(y.) To do all or any of the above things set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise:

(z.) To pay the expenses of and incidental to the foundation and incorporation of the Company, and to remunerate any promoter or director or any other person or persons for services rendered in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business, and such payment and remuneration may be in cash or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or in any other manner as the Company may determine:

(aa.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(bb.) In the event of any share capital of the Company being offered to the public for subscription, the directors to have the power to proceed to allotment when one per cent. of the shares so offered shall have been subscribed and the sums payable on application shall have been paid to and received by the Company, and the amount payable on application on each share shall be ten per cent. of the nominal amount of the share; and provided that, if the Company shall not offer its shares to the public for subscription, the directors may proceed to allotment when five shares have been subscribed for and fifty per cent. of the nominal amount of each of such five shares shall have been paid and received by the Company. Provisions in this subsection contained not to apply after the first allotment of shares offered to the public has been made.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 5464 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Albion Land Co., Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of ninety thousand dollars, divided into eighteen hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-fourth day of February, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To enter into and carry into effect with such (if any) modifications as may be agreed upon, whether before or after the execution thereof, an agreement in the terms of a draft agreement already prepared and initialled for identification by John S. W. Pugh, a solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia, and expressed to be made between The Vancouver Wharf Company, Limited, and Joseph Walter McFarland, the liquidator thereof, of the one part and this Company of the other part:

(b.) To acquire by purchase or otherwise land of any tenure in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, water lots, wharf and dock sites, and to subdivide any such land for sale in lots or otherwise, and to erect, construct, equip, maintain, operate, alter, pull down, or remove or otherwise deal with wharves, warehouses, docks, piers, dry-docks, graving-docks, floating docks, marine railways, and patent slips, and to carry on the business of wharfingers, warehousemen, merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, scow-owners, tug and barge owners, and forwarding agents:

(c.) To erect and construct, either by the Company or through other parties, offices, houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other lands, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, improve, furnish, and equip any such offices, houses, buildings, or works:

(d.) To carry on the business of docking and repairing vessels:

(e.) To purchase, charter, hire, build, or otherwise acquire steam and other ships and vessels, with all equipment, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, troops, munitions of war, live stock, meat, corn, fish, and other products and merchandise and chattels of all kinds, and to purchase goods and merchandise of all kinds for freighting any vessels of the Company, and to dispose of the same by sale or otherwise:

(f.) To purchase, take in exchange, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, dispose of, and deal in any real or personal property, securities, and any rights or privileges appertaining thereto, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, tools and implements, and stock-in-trade, and to pay for any property purchased by the Company in cash or fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(g.) To acquire by amalgamation or purchase or otherwise and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or issue any shares, stock, or obligations of the Company:

(h.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(i.) To enter into any arrangement with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company, and to secure the repayment of the same in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular, without restricting the generality of the next preceding clause, by the issue of the debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon any or all of the Company's undertaking and property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities:

(k.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof from time to time for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, and to divide such shares, debentures, or securities among the members of the Company in specie:

(l.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, warehouse receipts, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To apply for any Acts of Parliament or Legislature or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, engage, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property, rights, and privileges of the Company:

(p.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(q.) To do all or any of the things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(r.) To do all such things as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects. mh3

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To purchase and acquire from Ethel Cutler, Basanta, Hariea and Tara Singh the mill, timber contracts and business, together with the shingles now manufactured, at or near Sperling, in the Province of British Columbia, together with all other assets, goodwill, and leases of the said premises, and to pay for the same in cash or shares, or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(b.) To carry on in any part of the world the business of timber merchants, sawmill proprietors, shingle-manufacturers, wood-pulp manufacturers, and timber-growers, and to buy, sell, grow, cut, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in timber and wood of all kinds, and to make, manufacture, buy, sell, use, and deal in articles of all kinds in the manufacture of which timber or wood is used:

(c.) To cut, buy, sell, or otherwise deal in wood, timber, and lumber and forest products of all sorts; to build tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, docks, piers, and other works for collecting, holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all other purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission and sale of timber, saw-logs, pulp-wood, and lumber:

(d.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, importers, exporters, and dealers in sash, doors, screens, glass, mouldings, casings, panel-work, counters, shelves, show-cases, dressed lumber, shingles, and all other finished products of lumber and timber, and to contract for, erect, place in position as required, or otherwise deal with the same:

(e.) To buy, sell, exchange, and deal in, either by wholesale or retail, or both, all kinds of provisions, commodities, products, whether manufactured or unmanufactured, and goods and merchandise of all kinds, and to establish and carry on shops and stores for the purpose of buying, selling, and dealing in such goods, and generally to carry on the business of a trading company either wholesale or retail:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire any timber lands and timber and timber limits by lease, licence, or otherwise, and rights to cut and remove timber, and to work, develop, maintain, and turn the same to account, as the Company may see fit:

(g.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise land, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description situate in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to turn the same to account, as may seem expedient, and in particular by constructing, reconstructing, altering, improving, decorating, furnishing, and maintaining offices, flats, houses, factories, warehouses, shops, wharves, buildings, works, and conveniences of all kinds, and to subdivide, sell, lease, exchange, rent, mortgage, or otherwise charge, deal with, or charge or encumber the said lands or any interest therein:

(h.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company, at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(i.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(j.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the property of the Company or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bonds, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other instruments:

(k.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventures, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(l.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members, or any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(m.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(n.) To do all such things as are or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh3

(m.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, foundries, sawmills, shingle-mills, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, workshops, buildings, machinery, plant, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise aid or take part in any such operations, though constructed and maintained by any other company, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, implements, provisions, chattels, and effects:

(n.) To conduct and carry on business as general merchants and a general mercantile and commission business; to carry on business as general contractors for the carrying-out, construction, installation, and completion of works, erections, and contracts of all kinds:

(o.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(p.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(q.) To lend, deposit, or advance money, securities, or property to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(r.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company:

(s.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies, and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any company:

(t.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any real or personal property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(u.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(v.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(w.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(x.) To do all or any of the above things in any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in such Provinces or any of such Provinces:

(y.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business undertaking, transaction, or operation commonly carried on or undertaken by manufacturers, merchants, agents, or financiers; to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above objects, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company. mh3

(c.) To render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by the construction, erection, maintenance, and operation of any work or works necessary therefor, by diverting the waters of any stream, pond, lake, or other body into any channel or channels or otherwise:

(d.) To acquire water licences under the provisions of the "Water Act," and carry on the business of a water company or power company, and accordingly to exercise and enjoy all the rights, powers, and privileges which a water company or power company may acquire, hold, or enjoy under the "Water Act":

(e.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, stream, or other body of water, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, stream, or other body of water:

(f.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, or any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or shares or securities of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account the same or any portion thereof:

(g.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of the Company or cash, as the Company may think fit:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise turn to account, deal with, or dispose of the property and rights of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, with power to accept shares, debentures, or securities in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company; to undertake any liabilities of and take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of the business, property, or effects or the shares of any other company, association, firm, or person having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(i.) To enter into any arrangement with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Governments or authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable, and to hold, use, carry out, exercise, enjoy, and comply with and, if deemed advisable, sell, transfer, assign, mortgage, lease, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the or any of the same or any interest therein:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, use, exercise, or develop, sell, grant, grant licences in respect of, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account any process, improvement, mechanism, or device, or any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(k.) To sell any patents, rights, or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it, or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to allow to be used or otherwise deal with any inventions, patents, or privileges in which the Company may be interested, and to do all such acts and things as may be deemed expedient for turning to account any inventions, patents, and privileges in which the Company may be interested:

(l.) To contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist, aid, or take part in any operations similar to the or any of the operations capable of being undertaken, carried on, or maintained by this Company, though undertaken, constructed, or maintained by any other person or company:

(m.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, or securities:

(n.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or country of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(o.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, incorporation, and establishment and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, or placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise dealing with or disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property or assets, or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered to the Company in or about the conduct of its business, either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(p.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money, with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, in such manner or form and by such means as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property or any portion thereof, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or the acceptance, endorsement, or issuance of promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and to mortgage and pledge any of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital for the purpose of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company:

(q.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others: Provided that nothing in the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(t.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(u.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in nowise be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

(j.) To undertake and carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the objects of the Company, or which may be thought calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(k.) To perform, for the benefit of any other corporation, company, firm, or person, any act, work, operation, or thing which the Company might do or undertake for themselves, whether for reward or gratuitously, or as part of any arrangement or under any contract:

(l.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms, with or without security, as may seem expedient, and in particular as part of any contract for the acquisition of property or rights, or for the benefit of persons having dealings with the Company:

(m.) To lend or advance money to such person or persons, company or companies on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers to and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any person or persons whomsoever, with power to take security for such advances upon freehold and leasehold land, stock and stations, wool, cattle, produce, crops, shares, securities, merchandise, and other property, real or personal:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, issue, endorse, or discount bills of exchange, promissory notes, drafts, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for the purposes of the Company in such manner and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and to secure the repayment of moneys borrowed or owing and the performance of obligations incurred by the Company in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(p.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either in cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this Company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(r.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(s.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, and to sell, exchange, lease, under-lease, surrender, or otherwise deal with, either absolutely, conditionally, or for any limited interest, all or any part of the undertaking, property, rights, or privileges of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, to any public body, corporation, company, society, or association, or to any person or persons, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any stock, shares (whether wholly or partly paid), debentures, debenture stock, securities, or property of any other company:

(t.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of, this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the shares or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for or placing or guaranteeing the placing of the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this or connected with this, or any other company:

(u.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among the members in specie or otherwise, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things either as principals, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents or otherwise, and with power to appoint a trustee or trustees, corporate or unincorporate, to hold any property on behalf of the Company, and to allow any property to remain outstanding in such trustee or trustees:

(w.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company. mh10

(3.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land, and to sell or otherwise dispose of, exchange, lease, rent, mortgage, or otherwise encumber lands, tenements, buildings, and hereditaments of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over or connected with land:

(4.) To carry on business as builders, construction engineers, and general contractors for the carrying-out, construction, installation, and completion of works, erections, and contracts of all kinds:

(5.) To carry on business as timber merchants and sawmill, shingle-mill, and pulp-mill proprietors, and to buy, sell, import, export, manufacture, prepare for market, and deal in sawlogs, timber lumber, shingles, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(6.) To purchase, build, own, charter, use, hold, equip, maintain, and operate steamships, sailing-vessels, and other vessels, boats, and crafts, and to carry on business as carriers of freight and passengers for hire:

(7.) To conduct and carry on business as general merchants and a general trading, mercantile, and commission business, including the supplying and selling of foods, stores, and other necessities for the Company's employees and others, and the establishing, maintaining, and operating of hotels and boarding-houses:

(8.) To act and carry on business as stock and bond brokers and agents, and dealers in shares, stocks, bonds, and debentures of all kinds:

(9.) To act and conduct business as financial, insurance, collection, real-estate, house, special, and general agents and brokers; to acquire agencies and to be appointed agent for any person, firm, or corporation; to act generally as appraiser, valuator, or adjuster of real estate, personal estate, stocks, goods and chattels, or for any other lawful purpose; to act as accountant and auditor, and to assume and perform such duties as are or may be performed by accountants and auditors:

(10.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property and assets:

(11.) To borrow money on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(12.) To lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments, and in all respects to have and enjoy the same powers and privileges with regard to lending its money and transacting its business as a private individual could have and enjoy:

(13.) To buy, take by grant, assignment, devise, bequest, or otherwise acquire title to and to sell and transfer, mortgage and hypothecate any Provincial, railway, municipal, and other bonds or debentures of any kind whatsoever, and stock and shares in companies, banks, or building societies and other securities; to guarantee any investment made by the Company as agent or otherwise:

(14.) To act as representative or proxy for any person, firm, or corporation for any lawful purpose; to collect moneys due or owing in any way to any person, firm, estate, or corporation; to employ solicitors, attorneys, or counsel for any lawful purpose; to enter and prosecute, compromise and settle, and represent persons interested in actions, causes of actions, and suits of every kind, and to take proceedings in Courts of law pertaining to or which may appear necessary or advantageous in connection with its business or objects; to act as attorneys in fact for any lawful purpose:

(15.) To build and maintain and otherwise acquire safety-deposit vaults, and to receive for safe-keeping therein documents, jewellery, and other valuables of every kind and description, and to generally carry on the business of a safe-deposit company; to receive for safe-keeping any valuables, books, or documents by the direction or authority of any Court or Judge or otherwise:

(16.) To purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore with territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof:

(17.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or otherwise, any lands, concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or desirable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(18.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire any business similar in character to the herein-stated objects, and to acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(19.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry or engage in any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on, or engage in any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares or stock or securities in any company, and to subsidize or otherwise assist any such company, and to promote, incorporate, and finance companies and to hold, buy, sell, mortgage, or hypothecate, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the shares or securities of any company:

(20.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, and lake in British Columbia, and for that purpose to erect, build, lay, and maintain dams, aqueducts, flumes, ditches, or other conduit pipes, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same, and to locate and apply for and obtain water rights and water records, and to carry on the business of a power company, and to supply and sell light, heat, water, and power:

(21.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water records or water privileges, and to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by means of and by the purchase or erection or carrying-out and the maintaining of any works, erections, undertakings, or improvements whatsoever, and to use water and water-power for producing any form of power, and for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, and to sell and supply compressed air, electricity, and electric power and any other forms of developed power to consumers for any purposes to or for which compressed air, electric power, or any other form of developed power may be applied or required:

(22.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable considerations, as from time to time may be determined:

(23.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or for the conduct of its business:

(24.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(25.) To do all or any of the above things in any of the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country, and to procure the Company to be registered or recognized in such Provinces or country:

(26.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights, and to do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them. mh10

(c.) To carry on the business as warehousemen, commission, insurance, and forwarding agents:

(d.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(e.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(f.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(g.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, building, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(i.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(j.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the capital of the Company, or in or about the promotion or formation of the Company and in the conduct of its business:

(k.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the Provinces of Canada or in any other country or place:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(n.) To increase the capital stock of the Company:

(o.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

(11.) To buy, sell, prepare for market, and deal in coal, timber, live stock, meat, and other merchandise or produce:

(12.) To carry on any other business, manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or otherwise calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of any of the Company's property and rights for the time being:

(13.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(14.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(15.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(16.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry, out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(17.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(18.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(19.) To sell or dispose of the undertakings of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(20.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place:

(21.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the real and personal property and rights of the Company:

(22.) To increase the capital stock of the said Company, and to create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and otherwise over ordinary shares as may be provided in the by-laws of the Company or otherwise determined:

(23.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(24.) To raise or secure the payment or repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as the directors or a majority of the directors authorize in writing, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock of the Company charged upon all or any part of the property of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital for the time being:

(25.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other person or body, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the United Kingdom or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(26.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members. mh10

vidual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon; to promote or assist in promoting any company or companies, joint-stock companies, or societies anonyne for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purposes which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada, Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere; to take or otherwise acquire and hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(k.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) as may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authorities any charters, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, and concessions which the Company may deem advisable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, licences, franchises, privileges, or concessions, and, if deemed advisable, dispose of any such arrangements, charters, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(l.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(m.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(n.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(o.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of the Company or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company or cash, as the Company may think fit; to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(p.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions) by a charge on or deposit of any part of the Company's property of any kind soever; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(q.) To lend, invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required, and to make advances upon such securities, stocks, and shares and other property of all kinds, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined, but in no case by a purchase of the shares of the Company:

(r.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(s.) To adopt such means of making known the products and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(t.) To procure the Company to be registered in any other Province of the Dominion of Canada or in any other country:

(u.) To establish or aid in the establishment and in the support of any association for the benefit of persons employed by the Company:

(v.) To purchase, take on lease or licence, exchange, or otherwise acquire, construct, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber berths, leases, limits, and timber or lands of every description, mill property, mill-sites, water rights and water records, tramways, skidways, roads, foreshore rights, wharves, docks, piers, booms, and other works for collecting and holding, protecting, driving, rafting, towing, and delivering timber, sawlogs, pulp-wood, and removing obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and for making the same fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber, rafts, or drafts, and to deepen or otherwise improve the floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream, and other rights and privileges:

(c.) To acquire water and water-power by records of unrecorded water or by the purchase of water privileges, and to carry on the business of a power company, and construct and operate and supply and utilize water under the "Water Act" or any amendments thereto, and any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof:

(f.) To buy, own, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in conveyance of passengers, mails, and merchandise of all kinds:

(g.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land and water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, lightermen, forwarding agents, financiers, and agents and brokers:

(h.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise, acquire patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainments or any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith:

(j.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary and convenient for the purposes of its business:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any parts of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purpose of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or as may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stock, or obligations of the Company, and particularly to take over the business, undertakings, assets, and liabilities of that shingle-mill enterprise of John Henry Rosemergy on South Saltspring Island, and generally all the plant and works in connection therewith, and to pay for the same by the issue of shares of the Company, fully paid, but not exceeding the par value of ten thousand dollars ($10,000).

(l.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or all or part of the property or rights of the Company for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable instruments:

(n.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(o.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation of the Company:

(q.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or all or any part of the property or rights of the Company, with power to accept as the consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(r.) To do all such things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the other Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place. mh17

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 5511 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Harbour Sand and Gravel Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into one thousand five hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situated at Vancouver, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fourteenth day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To carry on business as sand, gravel, and stone merchants, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in, get, work, shape, hew, carve, polish, crush, saw, and prepare for market or use, stone, lime, cement, sand, ore, minerals, and building materials of all kinds, and acquire, open up, and work stone, gravel, and marble quarries, and generally to manufacture and otherwise operate as builders and contractors for the execution of works and buildings of all kinds:

(b.) To carry on the businesses of dredge-owners, founders, and dealers in all products of smelting of every nature and description, and general traders and merchants, and in other businesses which may seem to the Company, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of these objects:

(c.) To construct, maintain, alter, make, work, and operate on the property of the Company, or on property controlled by the Company, any canals, trails, roads, ways, tramways, bridges, and reservoirs, outlets, flumes, race and other ways, water-courses, aqueducts, wells, wharves, piers, furnaces, and sawmills, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, hydraulic works, electrical works and appliances, warehouses, buildings, machinery, plants, stores, and other erections and conveyances which may seem conducive to any of the objects of the Company:

(d.) To build, acquire, charter, navigate, and use steamers and steam-tugs, barges, and other vessels for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To purchase, take or lease, exchange, or otherwise acquire any improved or unimproved lands, in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, of any tenure or description, and any estate or interest therein, and any rights over and in connection with land, and to lease, sell, exchange, or mortgage or otherwise deal with or encumber any such lands or interest therein, and to build, contract for, or construct any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purpose of the Company, and to use, manage, lease, sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise dispose of or deal with the same:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, exchange, or otherwise any personal property, chattels, chattels real, fixtures, or other effects required in connection with the Company's business or undertaking or otherwise, and to sell, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same:

(g.) To invest or deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required for the Company's business in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(i.) To borrow or raise money for any purposes of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, make, accept, execute, endorse, discount, issue, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and in particular to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, at present or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital, and to grant, execute, seal, and deliver mortgages, bonds, bills of sale, and chattel mortgages, and to create, issue, make, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, bills of lading, and obligations:

(j.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof or any of its property or assets to any person, firm, or company, and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company:

(k.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authorities (Dominion, Provincial, local, municipal, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(l.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liability of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash, or to issue and allot shares of the Company credited as fully or partly paid up, stock or obligations of the Company, or to pay for the same partly in one way and partly in the other:

(m.) To enter into any partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts or liabilities of, or otherwise assist any such person or company:

(n.) To purchase, take, or otherwise acquire and hold shares and securities in any other company carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(o.) To establish or promote any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over of all or any part of the assets and liabilities of or the carrying-on of any business or operation which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire and hold shares, stocks, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities or any other obligations of any such company:

(p.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price or consideration for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or in guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or debenture stock or other securities in the Company or the conduct of its business, or in the payment of commissions in respect of the carrying-out of any of the objects of the Company:

(s.) To locate, purchase, own, sell, lease, develop, and operate mines, mining claims, and mining rights of every kind and nature whatsoever, and generally to engage in and carry on the business of mining for all minerals:

(t.) To purchase, own, build, construct, and operate mills, concentrators, smelters, hydraulic plants, and all and every machinery and equipment required necessary or used in the operation of mines; to properly treat and reduce ores and extract therefrom minerals, and to aid in the proper and economical construction of such business, and to acquire by purchase, appropriation, or otherwise water rights for power and other purposes:

(u.) To purchase, take over, or otherwise acquire all or any of the assets, business, property, privileges, concessions, contracts, rights, obligations, and liabilities of any company, society, partnership, or person carrying on any part of the business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property, assets, privileges, concessions, contracts, or rights suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or in shares of this Company, or partly in cash and partly in shares:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To retain or employ solicitors or attorneys:

(x.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any of the other Provinces of Canada, or in any of the United States of America, or in any other country or place:

(y.) To create and issue any part of the capital as preferred shares, giving the same such preference and priority as respects dividends and otherwise over ordinary shares as may be declared.

(h.) To establish in connection with the business of the Company packing-houses, factories, stores, agencies, depots, commission-houses, brokerage-houses, and other markets for the products and sale thereof:

(i.) To acquire, maintain, and operate stages, wagons, motor-cars, motor-trucks, and other conveyances and vehicles:

(j.) To acquire by staking, purchase, pre-emption, or otherwise, and to hold, manage, work, improve, sell, and turn to account, any lands, orchards, and hereditaments in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and to subdivide, sell, manage, lease, sublet, or otherwise dispose of the same, or any subdivision or part thereof, or any interest therein:

(k.) To buy, sell, prepare for market, manipulate, import, export, and deal in sawlogs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, portable houses, boxes, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber, or wood is used:

(l.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as shall from time to time be determined, and to buy or otherwise acquire in any way and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(m.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial transactions, trading or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(n.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue any shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(o.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such persons or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, or otherwise deal with the same:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(r.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(s.) To borrow or raise money on any kind of terms or conditions for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital:

(t.) To create, issue, make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and all other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(u.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(v.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered:

(w.) To alter the conditions of this memorandum in any manner recited in section 48 of the "Companies Act," or in any other manner which is now or may hereafter be permitted under the provisions of the "Companies Act":

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

It is hereby declared that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reason of the objects contained in any other paragraph, or by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample manner and construed in the widest sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company:

Nothing in any of the objects in this memorandum of association contained shall be deemed to confer on the Company any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act."

(c.) To purchase and acquire, deal in, sell, hold, lease, mortgage, and hypothecate real and personal property of all kinds, and in particular timber lands or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, and to engage in the business of loggers, shippers, and dealers in logs:

(d.) To enter into partnership or into any agreement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint advantage, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(e.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(f.) To allot the shares of the Company, credited as fully or partly paid up, as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, as from time to time may be determined:

(g.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real or personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any land, building, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(i.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(j.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the capital of the Company, or in or about the promotion or formation of the Company and in the conduct of its business:

(k.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the Provinces of Canada or in any other country or place:

(l.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(m.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(n.) To increase the capital stock of the Company:

(o.) And it is hereby declared that each paragraph hereof shall be interpreted as a separate power, and shall not be limited or restricted in anywise by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph.

(f.) To search for, stake, lease, record, purchase, or otherwise acquire, sell, mortgage, pledge, and deal in and pay for any information in regard to timber licences, timber leases, timber berths, and timber and wood lands of every description, and to cut, buy, and sell timber and forest products of all sorts, and to acquire, sell, and deal in mill property, mill-sites, and other works for collecting, holding, driving, rafting, towing, sorting, delivering, and all other purposes incidental to the reception, safe-keeping, and transmission of timber, saw-logs, pulp-wood, and lumber, and the right to clear and remove obstructions from any lake, river, creek, or stream, and for making same fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, shingle-bolts, timber, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and to deepen or otherwise improve any river, creek, stream, or lake:

(g.) To divert, take, and carry away water from any stream, river, or lake in British Columbia or elsewhere for the use of the Company's business, and for this purpose to erect, lay, and maintain dams, flumes, and aqueducts, ditches, or other conduit pipes for the development of power, or for the freighting of timber by any power at present known or that may be hereafter devised, and to sell or otherwise dispose of the same:

(h.) To carry on the business of a light, heat, and power company in all its branches, and generally to provide, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, and to lay out, operate, and maintain, works, stations, engines, power-houses, resorts, structures, accumulators, cables, wires, lamps, meters, transformers, and equipment of every description for the development, generation, transmission or utilization of gas, water, steam, electric, pneumatic, or other powers or structures and plant for any form of heating and lighting, and to undertake or enter into contracts for the lighting of towns, cities, streets, public and private buildings and other places, and the supply of gas and electric light, heat, and power for any or all private or public purposes, and to perform and enforce such contracts:

(i.) To carry on in the Province of British Columbia the business of a power company or any business within the meaning of the "Water Act, 1914," Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, and amending Acts; to acquire any necessary licences therefor, and to pay all such fees and charges, and to execute all such documents, and do all such things as may be required therefor, and to take, have, and enjoy the full benefit of the said "Water Act, 1914," and amending Acts:

(j.) To sell, assign, or transfer to any other company lawfully empowered in that behalf, or to any person, the Company's licence or licences, undertakings and powers as a power company:

(k.) To seek for and secure openings for the employment of capital in British Columbia and elsewhere, and with a view thereto to prospect, inquire, examine, explore and test, and to dispatch, employ, and finance expeditions, commissioners, cruisers, experts, and other agents, and to report on all classes of property and enterprises for local or foreign corporations or private persons or firms:

(l.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, charge, or otherwise turn to account mortgages, charges, agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate, or any interest in real or personal estate:

(m.) To transact business as real-estate and insurance agents, mortgage-brokers, financial agents and accountants, lumber, timber, mining, and stock brokers, and to buy or sell, either outright or on commission or profit, and generally to deal in or make advances upon real estate or any interest thereunder, timber lands, timber limits, lumber, or any mining or other properties:

(n.) To lay out, construct, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire and to work and operate shops, mills, works, and factories of every kind for the treatment, handling, or manufacture of timber, lumber, or pulp-wood of every description, and the products or by-products or waste thereof, and for the manufacture, separation, and treatment or handling of paper, spirit, gases, asphalt, pitch, tar, paints, acids, clays, sandstone, cements, tile, concrete, bricks, and any other product or by-product or manufacture of metal, metalliferous substances, mineral wood, or other minerals whatsoever, whether severally or in combination:

(o.) To promote, acquire, construct, hire, equip, maintain, improve, work, manage, or control, or aid in or subscribe towards the promotion, acquisition, construction, hiring, equipment, maintenance, improvement, working, management, or control of, works, undertakings, and operations of any kind which may be necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company or any of them, and in particular roads, ships, scows, launches, dredges, lighters, tramways, branches and sidings, harbours, piers, docks, quays, wharves, warehouses, bridges, viaducts, aqueducts, reservoirs, embankments, waterworks, watercourses, canals, flumes, irrigations, drainage, logging-mills, logging-railways (operated by steam or other power), sawmills, crushing-mills, iron, steel, ordinance, engineering, and implement works, hydraulic works, telegraph or telephone systems, carrying undertakings by land and water, markets, exchanges, mints, public and private buildings, newspapers and publication establishments, and breweries, wineries, distilleries, hotels, residences, stores, shops, and places of amusement, recreation, or instruction:

(p.) To construct, build, acquire, hire, charter, navigate, and use sailing-vessels, ships, boats, and craft of all kinds, whether propelled by steam or any other motive power, and to carry on the business of towing, freighting, lightering, and of the conveyance of passengers and merchandise, and of carriers by land and water, scow-owners, barge-owners, dredge-owners, shipping and forwarding agents, factors, warehousemen, and wharfingers:

(q.) To carry on the business of manufacturers, dealers, exporters, and importers in earthenware, china, tile, cement, pottery, glass, brick, stone, lime, chemicals, quarries, stone-cutters, earth-workers, and builders' and contractors' material and supplies of all kinds:

(r.) To carry on the business of general contractors for public and other works:

(s.) To institute, enter into, carry on, assist, or participate in trading, financial, commercial, mercantile, industrial, manufacturing, mining, and other businesses, works, contracts, undertakings, and financial operations of all kinds, and to carry on business as exporters and importers:

(t.) To make donations to such persons and in such cases, and either of cash or other assets, as may be thought, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the Company's objects or otherwise expedient, and in particular to remunerate any person or corporation introducing business to this company, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or other object, and to aid in the establishment and support of associations for the benefit of persons employed by or having dealings with the Company, and in particular friendly or other benefit societies, and to grant any pension, either by way of an annual payment or a lump sum, to any officer or servant of the Company:

(u.) To make gifts of land or money for any religious, educational, sanitary, or public purpose, and also to make grants of land without consideration for roads, railways, parks, pleasure-grounds, market-places, public squares, open spaces, or any purpose which it is considered will enhance the value of the remaining property of the Company:

(v.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(w.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or persons:

(x.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(y.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in the promotion, formation, organization, and registration of, any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by underwriting the subscription to all or any of the share or debenture capital of any such company, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise; to remunerate, either in cash, fully paid shares, or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company; to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incident to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commission for obtaining applications for or placing or guaranteeing the placing of the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company, and also all expenses attending the issue of any circulars, maps, plans, or notices, or the printing and circulating of proxies or forms to be filled up by the members of this, or connected with this, or any other company:

(z.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith; and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same, or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the Company:

(aa.) To procure the Company to be licensed or registered in any foreign country or place:

(bb.) To adopt such means of making known the property and purposes of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by the publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(cc.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands and rights or other property or effects of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual companies or persons, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies, and, in the case of shares, either wholly or partly paid up, as the consideration for any such sale, exchange, lease, mortgage, or dealing, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment or interest thereon:

(dd.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(ee.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(ff.) To take, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and hold, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise dispose of, shares or stock in any other company:

(gg.) To draw, accept, and make, and to endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(hh.) To lend or advance moneys to such parties, whether individuals or corporate bodies, and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons and corporations having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts or undertaking of any such person or corporation:

(ii.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stocks, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(jj.) To enter into and carry into effect any arrangement for joint working in business, or for sharing of profits, or for amalgamation with any other company or any partnership or person carrying on business within the objects of this Company:

(kk.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized, either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other company or persons, or by or through any factors, trustees, or agents:

(ll.) To apply from time to time for such legislative powers in the said Province of British Columbia or elsewhere as will facilitate the carrying into effect of the objects of the Company or any of them:

(mm.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(nn.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company:

(oo.) Nothing herein contained shall be construed as conferring upon the Company any of the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act." mh17

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 5502 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "T. B. Ross & Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of sixty thousand dollars, divided into six hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Victoria, Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eleventh day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The following are the objects for which the Company has been incorporated:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the goodwill, undertaking, and business and all or any of the assets and liabilities of T. B. Ross & Company, of 215 Central Building, in the City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, and with a view thereto to enter into the agreements referred to in clause 4 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification:

(b.) To purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire land, timber, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and water privileges in the Province of British Columbia:

(c.) To carry on the business of engineers, naval architects, ship-builders, and ship-repairers in all their respective branches:

(d.) To act as specialists in manufacturing, ordering, and supplying British, Canadian, and other engineering plants and machinery in all respects and in all branches of engineering, ship-building, dry docks, marine construction, air-craft of all descriptions, and submarine vessels of all descriptions:

(e.) To construct, equip, maintain, improve, and operate dry-docks, marine railways, patent slips, steamers, tugs, sailing-vessels, steam-launches, or vessels propelled by any other form of motive power, boats and water-craft of all descriptions; and also to construct, equip, improve, and repair aeroplanes, seaplanes, and other air-craft of any kind, submarine vessels and war vessels of any and every description; and to own, purchase, lease, or construct wharves, piers, docks, jetties:

(f.) To provide, take upon lease, or otherwise acquire any buildings, machinery, plant, or other property or rights, easements, or privileges which may be deemed necessary or expedient for the purposes of the business of the Company:

(g.) To buy, manufacture, and sell all kinds of machinery, ships' stores, materials, and things required for manufacturing and repairing vessels and water-craft generally, and required for the manufacturing and repairing of all forms of machinery, machines, and structural work of any description, and all kinds of goods, chattels, and effects required by the Company:

(h.) To carry on the business of loading, unloading, and ballasting, and generally to carry on the business of a stevedore:

(i.) To carry on the business of manufacturing or dealing in timber or lumber, spars, masts, ships' tackle, stores, or other articles and things connected therewith:

(j.) To exercise and carry on the business of wharfingers and carriers in all its branches, and to conduct and carry on a shipping, touring, and general trading business, and to undertake agencies and conduct and manage steamers, vessels, ships, et cetera, and to carry on a general commission and insurance agency business:

(k.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render more profitable any of the Company's property:

(l.) To purchase or by other means acquire and protect, prolong, and renew any patents, patent rights, brevets d'invention, licences, protections, and concessions which may appear likely to be advantageous or useful to the Company, and to use and turn to account and to manufacture under or grant licences or privileges in respect of the same, and to expend money in experimenting upon and testing and in improving or seeking to improve any patents, inventions, or rights which the Company may acquire or propose to acquire:

(m.) To undertake and do all or any matters and things herein set forth, either in partnership or in co-operation with any other companies or with any persons or public bodies, and to do all such things as may be necessary in order to enable the Company to carry on its business:

(n.) To amalgamate with any other company or firm or person or persons carrying on any business included in the objects of this Company, and to sell its business undertaking and all or any part of the property and estate of the Company, as a going concern or otherwise, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular the shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any company purchasing the same, or to purchase the business of any other such company or firm or person or persons, and all or any part of the property or estates thereof, as a going concern or otherwise:

(o.) To make sale, amalgamation, or partnership arrangements in consideration wholly or partly of shares, debentures, or securities of any other company, and to promote or assist in the formation or establishment of any company intending to make or enter into partnership or amalgamation or to purchase or take any property in connection with this Company, and to make or concur in making such financial arrangements therefor as may be thought necessary or expedient:

(p.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities or any other assets of the Company or of other companies belonging to this Company or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(q.) To subscribe for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold shares or other interests in or securities of any other company having objects together or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(r.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person, firm, or company carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(s.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(t.) To lend and advance money or give credit to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to give, guarantee, or become security for the performance of contracts by members of and persons having dealings with this Company:

(u.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(v.) To apply for, promote, and obtain where-soever any legislative or parliamentary Acts, provisional order, or other authority for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for the dissolution of the Company and the incorporation of its members as a new company, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interest:

(w.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) or any corporation, companies, or persons that may seem conducive to the Company's objects:

(x.) To build, construct, maintain, alter, enlarge, pull down, and remove or replace any boats, ships, buildings, factories, and other works, offices, wharves, roads, machinery, engines, walls, fences, banks, dams, sluices, or watercourses, and to clear sites for the same, or to join with any person, firm, or company in doing any of the things aforesaid, and to work, manage, and control the same or join with others in doing so:

(y.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and to secure the repayment of any money borrowed, raised, or owing by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets (whether present or future), including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any obligations or liability it may undertake:

(z.) To improve, manage, cultivate, develop, exchange, let on lease or otherwise, mortgage, sell, dispose of, turn to account, grant rights and privileges in respect of, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(aa.) To remunerate any person, director, shareholder, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or by the allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(bb.) To contract with any person, firm, or company to pay all or any expenses incurred in connection with the formation, promotion, and incorporation of the Company, or to pay the same, and to pay commission to brokers and others for underwriting, placing, selling, or guaranteeing the subscription of any shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of this Company:

(cc.) To do all or any of the above things either alone or in connection with others, and either as principal or agent, and either by itself or by sub-contractors, agents, or otherwise, and either in the Province of British Columbia, the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere in the British Empire, in China, or North or South America, or elsewhere, as may be determined by the Company:

(dd.) To register the Company in the Dominion of Canada and elsewhere, and to obtain any Act of Parliament or law or order of any colonial or foreign Legislature or Government for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect:

(ee.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully paid or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, and to remunerate by the issue of fully or partially paid-up shares or otherwise any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities of the Company, or in the conduct of its business, or in procuring the Company to be incorporated:

(ff.) To do all such acts and things as are necessary, incidental, or conducive to the attainment of the objects of the Company or any or all of them, or which may tend, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company in any of its objects:

(gg.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing objects contained shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined in the "Trust Companies Act":

(hh.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the Company's objects as expressed shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen, and not to restrict, the powers of the Company. mh17

(t.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of the Dominion of Canada or in any foreign country or place:

(u.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to directly benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(v.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(w.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(x.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(y.) To distribute any of the property in specie amongst members:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

It is hereby declared that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs in this memorandum shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reason of the objects contained in any other paragraph, or by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph, or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample manner and construed in the widest sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company:

Nothing in any of the objects in this memorandum of association contained shall be deemed to confer on the Company any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

The Company may do or carry out all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other companies or persons, or by or through any factors or agents.

(15.) To purchase, acquire, and take over the business and (or) undertaking, goodwill, property, and (or) liabilities of any person or company, whether incorporated or not, carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, and to pay for the same either in cash or with fully paid-up non-assessable shares of this Company, or part in cash and part in fully paid-up shares as aforesaid:

(16.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, co-operation, or otherwise with any other company, person, or persons carrying on or to carry on any business or works or undertaking which this Company is authorized to carry on, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to take, purchase, or otherwise acquire and hold debentures, bonds, shares, or stock or securities of any such company, and to buy, sell, and otherwise deal in all such shares and securities:

(17.) To form, promote, subsidize, and assist companies, syndicates, and partnerships of all kinds:

(18.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(19.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(20.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(21.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(22.) To enter into any contracts for allotment of shares of the Company, credited as fully or partially paid up, as the whole or any part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(23.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(24.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(25.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(26.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(27.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) in any part of the world and with any corporation, company, or person that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such authority or person any charters, contracts, decrees, rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think desirable, and to carry out and deal with, sell, mortgage, hypothecate, and otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(28.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(29.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(30.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any foreign country or place:

(31.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of and incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in the placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares of the Company's capital or any debentures or other securities in the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(32.) To establish or support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance for the benefit of such persons:

(33.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

It is hereby declared that the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause, except where otherwise explained in such paragraph, shall in nowise be restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. mh17

CERTIFICATES OF INCORPORATION.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 5524 (1910).

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Lakeshore Mining Company, Limited (Non-Personal Liability)," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act" as a Limited Company, with a capital of three million dollars, divided into three million shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Ainsworth, Province of British Columbia.

The Company is specially limited under section 131 of above Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are restricted to prospecting for, locating, acquiring, managing, developing, working, and selling mines, mineral claims, and mining properties, and the winning, getting, treating, refining, and marketing of minerals therefrom, and to the exercise of the powers mentioned below; and the Company shall have, except as in the "Companies Act" expressed, no greater powers, namely:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(b.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(c.) To engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(d.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise timber lands, leases, or claims, rights to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights and concessions, and other real or personal property:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipe-lines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices, and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery, plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and affects:

(f.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(g.) To sell or otherwise dispose of ore, metal, oil, gas, or mineral product, and to take contracts for mining-work of all kinds, and to accept as the consideration shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated, and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of a specially limited company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up, and to sell or otherwise dispose thereof:

(h.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company carrying on or about to carry on any business, transactions, or undertakings which a specially limited company is authorized to carry on:

(i.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business permitted to or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of a specially limited company:

(j.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as it shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any part of its property, including uncalled capital, so, however, that the total amount borrowed, raised, or secured and outstanding shall not without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company exceed one-quarter of the capital for the time being paid up; but nothing in this clause contained shall limit or affect any power of borrowing vested in the directors under the memorandum or articles:

(l.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(m.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, and to accept as consideration therefor shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated, and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of a specially limited company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up:

(n.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any other country, and to accept rights and powers to carry on its business therein:

(o.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. mh24
